

IC CATHOLIC PREP

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday—November 10, 2022

Raffle tickets have been distributed during Period K today. Please take them home to your parents and do not leave them in your locker. Lost raffle tickets cannot be replaced. Teachers, please return any absent student tickets and plastic bags to the Main Office.

The fan bus to Bloomington is leaving promptly at 10:00 am tomorrow morning. Students, please arrive no later than 9:45 am. In order to ride the bus, students must turn in a permission slip and money no later than 3:00 pm today.

There are a limited number of volleyball Final Four t-shirts in sizes L and XL left in the Main Office for $15.

Yesterday's WOW Wednesday answer was Ms. McMahon who was classically trained as a bel canto (opera.) Do not forget today is Thankful Thursday - thank a friend today!

On November 11, each year, we celebrate the National Independence Day in Poland to celebrate the anniversary of Poland regaining sovereignty in 1918. After 123 years of captivity and the partitions of Poland between three neighboring powers, Poland was reborn as a sovereign and democratic European state. The Polish immigrant population in the city of Chicago is the largest in the United States.

The Yearbook Staff will have its regular meeting today after school. Please attend. Designers are needed for the Sports team pages. Writers are needed for the events section. Photographers are needed for this weekend's events.

All high school teens are invited to bring friends for games and donuts at the youth night on Sunday, November 13th from 5:30-7 pm in Costello Hall. The topic is how to use gratitude to switch up bad vibes.